

This is against everything in America. By trying to limit what XM can broadcast doesn't make Local Stations any more appealing. I also feel that XM doesn't threaten Local Radio. I pay for my XM in which I help decide what should be on the air. It would be like telling the cable companies you can't broadcast because of having our local stations. Thanks for your time